

I left my dog poop bag on the trail because:

select all that apply

- I don't care about other people's experience of nature
- I want to set an example of poor citizenship to kids
- I am uneducated
- I want wildlife to ingest the bag, get sick and die
- I do not read
- I can not follow instructions
- I am used to other people picking up my shit
- I am selfish
- I am lazy
- I like seeing other people's dog poop bags on the trail
- I am a bozo and an idiot
- I do not recognize the privilege I have to bring my dog here
- I am a mindless slob
- I am a litterbug
- I am disrespectful
- I do not really deserve to have access to this park
- I seek to have dog access removed from this park
- I don't care
- I do not know how to play well with others
- I am so sorry. I will not do this ever again
